

Spy-Gate Knocked Out Russia-Gate; Now, For a New Economic System

May 24, 2018—'Spy-Gate'—the exposure of British filthy-operations against U.S. elections and the Presidency, is now in the process of knocking out Russia-Gate, which itself was a treasonous concoction by these same networks. President Donald Trump noted this in multiple tweets yesterday and today, saying, "Look how things have turned around on the Criminal Deep State. They go after Phony Collusion with Russia, a made-up scam, and end up getting caught in a major SPY scandal, the likes of which this country may never have seen before! What goes around, comes around!" He tweeted this morning, "SPYGATE could be one of the biggest scandals in history!" Details are now coming out, including crimes by an interagency taskforce (FBI, Treasury, CIA and others,) starting in early 2016—long before any "official" mandate for an investigation of Russia and Trump, and interlinked tightly with British espionage networks.

We are at a moment of opportunity to make way for the new economic system, now proceeding through the Belt and Road Initiative framework, and long overdue in the Trans-Atlantic. This is not a time to watch from the sidelines, to see how Trump wages a fight, nor to wish-and-hope some lone members of Congress will do the right thing. But, as citizens, it is our call to mobilize.

The potential for enlistment into the fight for a new system is shown in Italy, where citizens voted March 4, against the anti-nation EU policies. The Italian vote was a continuation of the uprising against Wall Street/City of London economic and geopolitical killer practices, as seen in the 2016 Brexit vote, the 2016 Trump vote, the Austrian 2017 vote, and other manifestations. This uprising process hasn't stopped, but it must go somewhere. That is our responsibility, with the LaRouche Four Cardinal Laws, and the optimism of truth.

The enemy is completely deranged at the very thought of an Italian government coming together, favorable to any of the precepts of the LaRouche Four Laws. The two parties 5-Star and Lega are on record for a Glass-Steagall bank reorganization, and a credit institution. Italian President Sergio Mattarella is to announce his decision tomorrow, about a possible M5S/Lega government. Opponents are hysterical. Germany's Second TV station said that Brussels must deal with Italy like a wild horse: put a gag-bit on her, and rein her in. Germany's senior CDU Member of the European Parliament Elmar Brok is presenting horror scenarios: "The Italian economy will collapse. The Italian banks will collapse." Note that Brok supported the British/Obama-orchestrated 2014 Maidan Nazi coup against Ukraine, after that nation's government chose not to align with the EU.

At the same time, the casino-economic system these hysterics back, is blowing apart. You can't blame that on Italy. For example, the bubbles have burst of global hot money speculation in Argentina and elsewhere. The Argentine peso has plunged more than 30 percent against the U.S. dollar since the beginning of this year; currencies are dropping in Turkey, Brazil, Mexico, and elsewhere. In three weeks, Argentina has a second round of $30 billion in Lebac (peso-denominated bonds issued by the Argentine Central Bank) come due, after wild gimmicks were used May 15 to roll over the first batch of $30 bil due this year.

Helga Zepp-LaRouche summed up today, that the "Italy-bashing shows the utmost arrogance and unwillingness to consider why any of this is happening..." But, she said, "The Erinyes are at work!" Or, as Trump said of Russia-Gate changing to Spy-Gate, "What goes around, comes around." This is the time to mobilize.
