LARRY JOHNSON, BILL BINNEY BLAST RUSSIAGATE FAKERY, HIGHLIGHT GCHQ ROLE IN COUP

LaRouche PAC's April 25th Fireside Chat featured former NSA Technical Director Bill Binney, Larry Johnson formerly of the CIA and the State Department's Counter-Terror Unit, and Barbara Boyd, LaRouche PAC's author of the Report, Robert Mueller is an Amoral Assassin, He Will Do His Job If You Let Him. They discussed Robert Mueller's entirely nonsensical report trying to justify how he spent $35 million investigating Russiagate when it was known from the beginning that there was never any conspiracy between the Trump Campaign and Russia. Instead, there was a concerted effort from British and American intelligence agencies to smear Donald Trump as a Russian agent, a full-scale escalation of that effort involving multiple FBI, CIA, and GCHQ components when Trump became the Republican nominee, and the explosion of a coup attempt against the incoming Administration when Trump won the Presidency. This operation has dangerously imperiled relationships between the world's two great nuclear powers.

Bill Binney said he found no evidence in the Mueller report whatsoever demonstrating that Russians hacked the DNC or John Podesta; a fraud which Mueller spends pages attempting to promote. Binney has previously done forensics on the Wikileaks documents Mueller claims were the product of a hack by the Russians. He has demonstrated, as have others, that Guccifer 2.0, who Mueller claims is a Russian GRU persona, is a fake persona and that the Wikileaks documents are the product of a download via a thumb drive or storage device rather than a hack.

Johnson revealed that Britain's GCHQ began a calculated surveillance operation covering everyone in the Trump Campaign in late 2015, which is how they targeted George Papadopoulos, the young Trump Campaign volunteer working in London, for a series of entrapment operations which created the pretext for the FBI's counterintelligence operation, codenamed Cross-Fire Hurricane. As the result of this targeting, Papadopoulos was set up by Joseph Mifsud, a Maltese professor who is a British intelligence asset, not a Russian asset as fraudulently portrayed by Robert Mueller. Mifsud told Papadopoulos that the Russians had thousands of Hillary Clinton's emails, creating the pretext or predicate for an unprecedented espionage against a major Presidential campaign by the FBI. On April 24, 2019, President Trump issued a tweet: "Former CIA analyst Larry Johnson accuses United Kingdom Intelligence of helping Obama Administration spy on the 2016 Trump Presidential Campaign." — @OANN — WOW! It is now just a question of time before the truth comes out, and when it does, it will be a beauty!"

Boyd focused initially, on the reported fact that John Brennan initially demanded that the completely phony Christopher Steele report be included, verbatim, in the Obama Administration's January 2017 "assessment" that Russia meddled in the election in support of Donald Trump. While Johnson said that this was really being pushed by James Clapper, the implication was very clear. Had that phony piece of intelligence been directly endorsed, the coup would have been completely and dangerously opened up directly just before the President's inauguration. Otherwise, the three had a fascinating discussion of the British role in the coup and its strategic context and the key people who must now be investigated and jailed.
